GENEALOGY
— OF —
JOHN ROGERS
OF BOXFORD, MASS.

EXPLANATION.

Mrs. E. M. R. Sheldon and myself thought it was time to get out a supplement to the "Genealogy of John Rogers of Boxford, Mass.," which her sister, Mrs. C. R. Commons, published in 1882, and for the past year, we have been diligently at work, but for my part, I have come to the conclusion that it is approximately impossible to find the lacking information; therefore, we will print what we have and invite some one else to go on with the work, granting the free use of the material contained in this little pamphlet.

Any corrections I shall be glad to have brought to my attention and we hope the blank pages will be used, so the next one asking for family names and dates may be easily supplied.

Those who have the edition of 1882 will see that we have practically copied the first pages as well as the coat of arms, which Mrs. Commons understood from her grandfather to belong to the family.

Especially we wish to thank Miss Stow of Tallmadge, O., Mrs. Kiethly of Santa Ana, Cal., Mrs. Commons of Madison, Wis., Mrs. Smoot of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Mr. Rogers of Ames, Iowa, for important help.

ESTHER F. DODGE.

MANASSAS, VA., February, 1907.
